Published Every Weekday Afternoon.
Subscription: One Year, $5; One Month, 25 cts.
Single Copy, 1 cent.

Entered at the Postoffice at Barre as Second Class Matter.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1907.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

4,550

Billows of heat make an ocean of complaint.

Labor is summing up in Burlington this week and hitting off the balances.

To be strictly up-to-date, Brandon ought to draw upon the "unwritten law" in its recent homicide.

The one hundred Filipinos who have been in the American colleges for four years are said to have, almost without exception, taken honors. They ought therefore to be making a stride toward capacity for governing their own country.

The over-Sunday drowning stories from various Vermont towns were six too many, to say nothing of the removal of man by railroad or revolver. How many of them would never have happened, provided reason ruled? All of them perhaps; at least some certainly.

"Joe" Jones, once famed in Vermont poetries of the Rutland complexion, is now stirred by the muse of poetic expression, and his latest production is "Take Me Back to Old Vermont." Let all ex-Vermont politicians join in the chorus, please. If you can't sing, whistle.

So we Americans have been offered up as a sacrifice on the altar of Rockefeller greed, just to tickle the foreign consumers of oil. At any rate, Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations, says so. Therefore, having his official pronouncement before us and the latest oil bill, we are quite prepared to believe the statement.

The honor system among inmates of county jails is a good deal like the honor system among college students taking examinations without surveillance; there are some who can carry the responsibility and others who can't. The man who fled the jurisdiction of Sheriff Tracy the other day while put out farming was a good deal like the college student whose honor has been knocked off short with a sledge-hammer.

UNUSUALLY RAILROAD APPROACHES.

The Enosburg Standard, speaking of the desirability of neat railroad passenger stations, well says: "Throughout the cities and villages of Vermont there is a growing sentiment of civic pride, a movement for order, cleanliness and beauty. The railway companies should do their share, in fact should be among the leaders in the movement. A reform in policy and methods is certainly needed, and unless such reform is forthcoming voluntarily, the railroad commission should exercise the power and authority with which it is vested to bring about the needed reformation."

When the new station is erected here by the Central Vermont railroad, the people hope to make a beauty spot out of a plague spot. As is oftentimes the case, Barre shows its worst side first to the incoming people. A rather unsightly railroad yard passed, the train wharves one up before a little building with surroundings that might do for a section house, but not for a passenger station. The ground is low about the place, and in wet weather the mud-holes

HULDAH SAYS:

"If you wish to avoid the dampness of the grass when you are using the lawn at night, why don't you buy the CREX Rugs? They are a sort of carpet matting that will stand awfully hard usage."

gather the murky water to remain stagnant until an obliging sun evaporates the moisture. Papers, boxes, ashes and other litter add to the general confusion of ugliness. All this is a disagreeable contrast to the tidy, well-kept stations of the Boston & Maine railroad in Massachusetts, for instance. But when this land is graded up and an attractive building erected thereon, the railroad company may depend upon the city's co-operation in keeping the place clean and sightly. Barre is one of those Vermont communities whose civic pride hopes and works for better things.

PURSES FOR RACES $3,500.

Entries of Oxen From Three States For Valley Fair at Brattleboro. Brattleboro, Aug. 13.—The Valley Fair association has received entries of strings of oxen from Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine, which will make a pleasing feature of the fair September 24, 25 and 26. The management has received assurance from leading horsemen throughout New England that a fine string of horses will be on hand for the class races, and President George W. Pierce says he expects the racing to be the best ever seen on the grounds. The stake races already have filled with a large number of entries. The purses for the races aggregate $3,500. Herds of the leading breeds of cattle are already assembled from all parts of New England. An all-age stallion class has been added in the horse department, for both standardbred trotting and Morgan horses. The school exhibit this year will be an industrial exhibit, showing the work of the summer schools. The association has departed a little from previous rules and will allow exhibitors to sell their wares on payment of a fee.

Only a Few Loads of Stone Wanted.

Mr. Editor: Will you please allow us a space in your paper? We wish to ask the board of alderman if they would please see that a few loads of stone are drawn on Perrin street hill. It is impossible to get provision or wood. We ladies will feel greatly obliged. Ladies of Perrin Hill.

Three Layers of Atmosphere.

It appears that in the atmosphere there are three distinct currents of air, the first lying at an elevation of from 600 to 1,500 meters, the second at from 2,500 to 4,000 meters and the upper one at from 6,000 to 8,000 meters above the surface of the earth. These are to an extent separate currents, flowing each with its own velocity. At the bottom of each of the layers the stratus clouds are formed, and at the top of each of the layers occur the cumulus clouds. This suggests that the stratus originate at the bottom of a moving current and the cumulus at the top. It is probable, then, that the stratus owe their origin to the difference in velocity and temperature of the two layers, while the cumulus are formed by ascending currents within the layer of air.

Law Points.

Requiring labor for the working of highways is held, in State versus Wheeler (N. C.), 5 L. R. A. (N. S.), 1139, not to be taxation. That an administrator may be made garnishee for the amount owing him for fees, in a proceeding to collect a debt against him individually, is held, in Sanders versus Herndon (Ky.), 5 L. R. A. (N. S.), 1072. Recovery by a merchant of damages for delivery of a consignment of merchandise of a quality inferior to that contracted for is held, in Ellison versus Johnson (S. C.), 5 L. R. A. (N. S.), 1151, not to be prevented by the fact that, because of an advance in the market price, it is disposed of at a profit.

Asked and Answered.
Little Willie—What is silence, pa?
Pa—The counterfeit of wisdom, my son.—St. Louis Republic.

JINGLES AND JESTS

Loafin' Round.

Weather's just the kind to be loafin' round the wind blows free, Nigh some cool old country ranch Where the boys wade in the branch! Where you smell the summer rain As it sprinkles some old lane, Where the bees make honeycomb, An' they call the cattle home! Talk about the blazin' town, Nothin' now like loafin' round! —Atlanta Constitution.

Material For Lectures.

Bacon—I see the first expedition of the South Pole took place in 1567. Egbert—Gracious! Did they have lectures as early as that?—Yonkers Statesman.

Only Temporary.

He—I hear that George and Kitty have made up their quarrel! She—Only temporarily. They are going to be married soon!—London Judy.

Awakened Memories.

Mr. Youghusband (reading from paper)—"Married—Blanche de Smythe to Walter Wellington Beere." What old memories that name awakens! Mrs. Y. (musing)—I never imagined you knew of my engagement to Walter. Mr. Y. (chillingly)—I was alluding to Blanche.—Tit-Bits.

The Poor Railway Man.

I would not be a railroad man In this degenerate day, When the pass has been abolished And the editor must pay; When every ink-pot in the land Is working overtime To prove all railway presidents Are steeped in fraud and crime.

I would not be a railway man In this exacting age, When the unions are demanding Less hours and higher wage; When every shipper on the line Would put behind the bars That luckless weight, the railway man Because there are no cars.

I would not be a railway man In this disturbing time, When every hayseed statesman Attempts his neck to climb; With laws to cut down earnings, And laws to tax them more, With endless complications And persecutions sore.

I would not be a railway man At this destructive date, A target for the journals, A football for the State. I'd let them take the railways And run them as they'd like; I would not be a railway man, I'd quit my job and strike. —Boston Transcript.

We Wonder.

Wise Darwin has passed away, The natural history maker, We wonder if he lived today Would he be called a "nature fakir." —Chicago News.

Hard Hit.

Gwendolen Gush—What glorious sunsets you have here! Tom Doughhead—Yes, aw—especially in the evenings.—Harper's Weekly.

At a Summer Hotel.

She traced the sunshine's secret ray With fortitude almost sublime, She changed her gown six times a day And said she'd had a lovely time! —Washington Star.

Sarcasm.

Mrs. Jawback—There's something preying on my mind. Mr. Jawback—Don't worry. It will starve to death.—Cleveland Leader.

Sortain.

A person may no faddist be Of fashion, don't you know, Yet often matrimonially He ties a natty bow. —Judge.

Bare Faced.

He—And why do you prefer yacht- ing to motorboating? She—A girl doesn't have to wear goggles when yachting.—Puck.

For the Many.

Now, in this age of trusts, alas! Fair woman plays her part. The summer day lets no chance pass To syndicate her heart. —Philadelphia Press.

FIRE INSURANCE

The Etna Fire Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., is represented in this Agency.

The "Etna" is all we need to say. Its liberal dealings with its policyholders during its whole history is all the advertisement it needs.

During eighty-eight years it has paid in losses to its policyholders over One Hundred Eight Millions of Dollars.

Why Not Start Now AND PAY CASH FOR YOUR GOODS?

We Want to Increase Our Cash Sales and Will Help You Increase Your Savings Bank Account.

To do this we are going to make the most liberal DISCOUNT FEATURE ever offered in Barre.

Our Plan is This:

We have just installed a new National Cash Register System, built specially to take care of our business and to prevent mistakes and carelessness.

Beginning August 12th, 1907, and continuing till September 12th, 1907, we will give you a cash register receipt for each cash purchase in our store, and for one day in the month we will return to the holders of these cash register receipts bearing that date the amount of their cash purchase for that day. The lucky day will be announced September 15th and checks will be redeemed at our store any time between September 16th and 30th, 1907.

This means that you can come into our store and trade with us to the amount of $1.00, $10.00 or $20.00, and if it is the day that we return our receipts the amount of your purchase in cash will be returned to you. This does not apply to wholesale customers.

And remember that we have always had the name of selling our goods as low, or a little lower, than anybody in town. Our prices will remain the same and goods will be the same high-grade quality as ever.

Trade With Us and Save Money.

Smith &amp; Cumings,

Telephone 438-11 305 North Main St., Barre, Vt.

WE HAVE A FINE English Cambric Writing Paper 48 sheets of Paper with 48 Envelopes in a Box for 25 cents.
